DESCRIPTION

In Fusio, the last village in the Val Lavizzara (Valle Maggia), at an altitude of 1,300 metres. A haven of nature and tranquillity.

Our 'Swiss Historic' certified hotel features 9 rooms, communal areas, a small bar and a library, a lounge, a garden, and a 45m² function room, our 'Villa Musica'.

Thanks to its location, its secluded setting and its unique layout, Villa Pineta seems to us the ideal place to offer those who seek it a retreat, a place to recharge, a workspace and a venue for gatherings.

Our hall was designed and conceived first and foremost with acoustics in mind, to celebrate music-making, centred around a magnificent grand piano (191 cm). To hear every breath, every vibration. To feel every harmony – this is what we wish to offer our guests, music lovers and amateur or professional musicians during our musical season!

But this single-storey space, opening onto the garden, can also host yoga retreats, singing courses, writing and painting workshops, seminars and parties... And this even during the off-season, from March to May and from October to November.
